INTER VIVOS TRUST INDENTURE

Trustor / Trustee: Gustavo Orona Maldonado, Son of Jesus Felix Maldonado
Established: ©2025
Governing Law: Contract, Equity, UCC, Trust Doctrine
Status: Foreign to any Public Statutory Jurisdiction

"He Who Controls The Record, Controls The Estate. He Who Stands In Equity, Commands The Law."

This Trust and its Trustee hereby declare and record their living authority over the estate styled GUSTAVO ORONA MALDONADO and all related commercial interests, including but not limited to assets, obligations, and equitable claims.

This deployment kit serves as formal documentation, notice, and enforcement directive, establishing the Trust's authority to operate in the private domain, free from public statutory oversight. It is a comprehensive guide for the Trustor to manage, protect, and discharge obligations while preserving the rights and benefits of the Beneficiaries.

TRUST INDENTURE OVERVIEW

Article I – Declaration

THIS TRUST IS ESTABLISHED AS A PRIVATE, NON-STATUTORY entity under the natural right to contract, as enshrined in Article I, Section 10 of the U.S. Constitution, and supported by the Principles Of Common Law, equity, the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC), and TRUST DOCTRINE. The Trust is not registered with any federal, state, or commercial registry and operates under Exclusive Private Authority.

- Duration: The Trust shall exist for a term of 100 years from the date of creation, unless lawfully terminated under proper execution by the Trustor or successor Trustee.
- Jurisdictional Exemption: The Trust explicitly rejects any presumption of public registration, statutory compliance, or governmental oversight, unless voluntarily engaged for specific purposes (e.g., banking or commerce requiring an EIN).
- Intent: To create a private fiduciary entity that operates in honor, equity, and good faith, free from public interference, for the benefit of its Beneficiaries.
- Authority: The Trust's authority is derived from the inherent rights of the people to self-govern in private commerce, as well as the legal frameworks of contract law, equity, and the UCC.

Article II – Trustor and Parties

- Trustor & Trustee: Gustavo Orona Maldonado, a living man, acting in his private capacity as Trustor and Trustee, vested with full fiduciary authority to manage the Trust and its operations.
 - Authority Confirmation: Trustor status is established via IRS Form 56 Notice Concerning Fiduciary Relationship), filed with the Internal Revenue Service to affirm control over the debtor estate styled GUSTAVO ORONA MALDONADO.
 - Liability Limitation: The Trustor acts solely in a fiduciary capacity and is not personally liable for Trust obligations unless proven to have acted in fraud, bad faith, or gross negligence.
- Trustor: Gustavo Orona Maldonado, a living man, acting in his private capacity, who conveys initial property and equitable interests into the Trust.
 - Role: The Trustor's role is limited to the initial conveyance, after which all authority transfers to the Trustee. The Trustor retains no control or liability over the Trust.

- Beneficiaries: The Beneficiaries shall include:
 - The living descendants and assigns of the Trustor; “See Schedule A”
 - Any additional persons or entities privately named by the Trustor under the authority granted herein;
 - The Trust itself, as a mechanism to hold and manage assets for future distribution or reinvestment.
 - Beneficiary Rights: Beneficiaries are entitled to equitable benefits as determined by the Trustor, but have no direct control over Trust operations unless explicitly delegated in writing.
- Protectors (Optional): The Trustor may appoint a Protector to oversee the Trustee’s actions and ensure compliance with the Trust’s purpose.
 - Role: The Protector has no operational authority but may advise or intervene in cases of suspected malfeasance.
 - Appointment: By private declaration of the Trustor, recorded in the Trust ledger.
 - Removal: The Protector may be removed by the Trustor with 30 days’ written notice, unless the Protector provides evidence of Trustor misconduct.

Article III – Purpose

The GM FAMILY TRUST is formed to:

- Acquire, hold, protect, manage, discharge, and administer real and personal property, equitable interests, instruments, and obligations for the benefit of the Beneficiaries;
- Engage in lawful commerce, including the issuance of negotiable instruments, debt discharge, and credit operations under UCC Article 3;
- Serve as a fiduciary creditor to discharge or acquire debts via lawful processes, including the use of IRS Forms (e.g., 1099-A, 1099-C) and UCC filings (e.g., UCC-1 Financing Statements);
- Operate, hold, and manage interests in private business entities, such as LLCs, partnerships, or sub-trusts, for the benefit of the Trust and its Beneficiaries;
- Administer lawful instruments, including but not limited to bonds, promissory notes, negotiable instruments, and trusts, in accordance with commercial law and equity principles;
- Protect the unalienable rights of the Trustor, Trustee, and Beneficiaries, including the right to privacy, self-governance, and freedom from unwarranted public interference;
- Create a legacy for the Beneficiaries, ensuring generational wealth and security through prudent management and lawful strategies;
- Allocate a portion of Trust proceeds to charitable causes, as determined by the Trustor in their sole discretion, provided such allocations align with the Trust’s primary objectives.

The Trust may:

- Hold title to property (real, personal, tangible, and intangible);
- Administer estate claims, including those associated with the debtor estate GUSTAVO ORONA MALDONADO;
- Discharge debt through lawful instrument use, such as IRS Forms 1099-A and 1099-C;
- Engage in commerce through Trust-controlled entities, ensuring all activities are conducted in the private domain;
- Invest Trust assets in lawful ventures, including securities, real estate, or private enterprises, provided such investments align with the Trust's purpose and do not expose the Trust to undue risk.

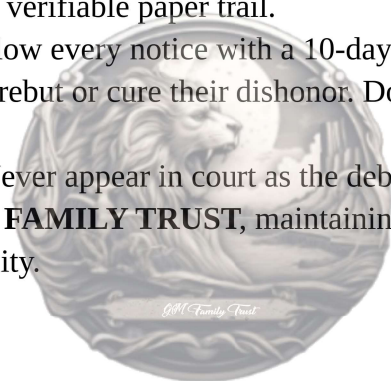

Article IV – Trust Property (Corpus)

- Initial Corpus: The initial property conveyed into the Trust shall include:
 - All rights, titles, and interests in assets privately conveyed by the Trustor, including equitable interests, intellectual property, and contractual rights;
 - Equitable interest in the debtor estate of GUSTAVO ORONA MALDONADO, as established through IRS Form 56 and related filings;
 - Intellectual property, legal rights, and beneficial interests, including claims to birth certificate bonds, Social Security accounts, or other public instruments;
 - Future acquisitions or assets transferred into the Trust via endorsed instruments (e.g., 1099-As, promissory notes, or deeds).
- Additions to Corpus: The Trustor may accept additional property into the Trust at their discretion, provided such property aligns with the Trust's purpose and objectives.
- Management of Corpus: The Trustee shall maintain a detailed inventory of all Trust property in a private ledger, ensuring protection from public seizure, taxation, or encumbrance to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Article V – Final Instructions From The Citadel

Operational Guidelines:

- Document Retention: Keep all documents in triplicate: one for the Trust's private records, one for mailing, and one for legal record in case of dispute.
- Mailing Protocol: Always mail notices and filings via certified mail with return receipt requested to establish a verifiable paper trail.
- Response Periods: Follow every notice with a 10-day response period, allowing creditors or agencies to rebut or cure their dishonor. Document non-responses as tacit acquiescence.
- Court Appearances: Never appear in court as the debtor—respond only in writing as the Trustee of the GM FAMILY TRUST, maintaining your fiduciary capacity and avoiding personal liability.

- Record keeping: Maintain meticulous records of all Trust activities, including IRS filings, UCC filings, and correspondence, to support the Trust's actions in any legal or equitable proceeding.

Escalation Protocol:

- If a creditor or agency continues to pursue a discharged claim after the 10-day period, escalate by:
 - Filing Form 3949-A with the IRS to report suspected fraud or non-compliance ;
 - Publishing the lien with the County Recorder to establish a public record of the claim;
 - Pursuing private trust enforcement, such as asset seizure or equitable remedies, through arbitration or a court of equity.
- If a creditor provides a rebuttal, review it for legal sufficiency (e.g., wet-ink contract, proof of loss). If insufficient, issue a Notice of Dishonor and proceed with lien enforcement.

Fiduciary Protections:

- Always sign documents as “Trustee – GM FAMILY TRUST” to maintain separation between your private capacity and fiduciary role.
- Use the UCC 1-308 reservation of rights on all signatures to preserve your unalienable rights and avoid unintended consent to statutory jurisdiction.
- Retain legal counsel or fiduciary processors if needed, but ensure they understand the Trust's private, non-statutory status and operate accordingly.

Article VI – Trustee Oath Of Office

I, Gustavo Orona Maldonado, a living man of sound mind and lawful standing, do hereby solemnly accept the role of Trustor and Trustee Fiduciary of the ©GM FAMILY TRUST, established in 2025. I affirm under penalty of perjury:

- To protect the corpus of the Trust and all assets held therein, ensuring their preservation and growth for the benefit of the Beneficiaries;
- To administer equity in all matters, acting in good faith and with honor in all commercial and fiduciary dealings;
- To stand as the lawful authority over the estate styled GUSTAVO ORONA MALDONADO, including all related commercial interests, accounts, and obligations;
- To never assume liability in my private capacity for actions performed as Trustor or Trustee, as my role is strictly fiduciary;
- To comply with all applicable commercial and equitable laws while maintaining the Trust's private status and autonomy;
- To keep accurate records of all Trust activities in a private ledger, ensuring transparency for the Beneficiaries while preserving confidentiality from public entities;
- To defend the Trust against all claims, liens, or encumbrances by third parties, using all lawful remedies available under UCC, equity, and trust doctrine.

Article VII – Acknowledgment

I further affirm that I undertake this role with full knowledge of my fiduciary duties and responsibilities, and I pledge to execute them with the utmost diligence and integrity.
